37 years ago Mr. A. B. Bryan, Agricultural Editor, at Clemson University penned the following words. They were true then and today they are like wise worth remembering.

1. Resolved: that I will think beyond the present year in planning and executing my farming business.

2. Resolved: that having planned my work, I will work my plan so that I will not reap merely, "a harvest of barren regrets."

3. Resolved: that I follow wise George Washington's advice to "keep an account book and enter therein every farthing of receipts and expenditures."

4. Resolved: that I will not stake everything in one cash crop, whether it be cotton, wheat, corn, or something else.

5. Resolved: that realizing that a worn-out soil means a worn-out man, I will not rob my farm of its fertility.

6. Resolved: that I will raise home supplies to the fullest extent consistent with my land and conditions.

7. Resolved: that I will market as much of my farm produce as possible in the form of livestock.

8. Resolved: that if I swear at all I will swear at scrubs and swear by purebreds.

9. Resolved: that I will not expect other farmers to produce feeds for my livestock.

10. Resolved: that I will buy more farm machinery and make better use of it to enable me to save time for more work and more leisure.

11. Resolved: that I will terrace all of my land that needs terracing and will build up the waste places.

12. Resolved: that I will save money and time by taking beter care of my farm machinery, tools, implements, and my livestock.

13. Resolved: that I will fertilize my crops intelligently and liberally for more economical returns from each acre.

14. Resolved: that I will plant more legumes and cover crops to help maintain the fertility of my land.

15. Resolved: that I will read and think more this year and thus learn to help reduce the high cost of ignorant farming.

16. Resolved: that I will provide more conveniences and comforts for the farm and home to make it more livable and more attractive formy family and my friends.

17. Resolved: that I will make the premises more beautiful by paint, shrubbery, trees, and flowers.

18. Resolved: that I will treat my woodland as a "field" and my growing timber as a "crop" and so "farm" it as to get needed timber ans fuel by such handling as will improve and not injure the woodland.

19. Resolved: that I will join my neighbors in cooperative marketing to provide orderly sale of my crops and help prevent glutted markets.

20. Resolved: that I will be generous with any good farming ideas which I have by passing them on to my neighbors.

21. Resolved: that I will help to put the unity in community by taking and making opportunities to work with other to improve agricultural, economic, and social conditions.

22. Resolved: that I will take a vacation trip at least once during the year to see how other people farm and live in other parts of the state or country.

23. Resolved: that I will encourage my boys in club work and other progressive activities so that they may become better farmers than I am.

24. Resolved: that even in the fact of discouraging experiences I will keep up my soirit and ny faith that the Creator of the land and of all things animate and inanimate with which I work will not forsake the tiller of the siol.

nice number turned alilee Baptist Church May 26th, for regular school. Theme for the - "A Strategy for ets 15:39-16:10. election - "Here Am I e". Isaiah 6:8. The es beautifully explain- the church school Those who attended gained helpful information to ponder over during the week.

Sunday was regular service at First Baptist Church. An appreciative audience turned out for the morning worship. Rev. Davis was at his post with an excellent message, which was enjoyed by those in attendance. The church choirs, Junior and Senior, rendered lovely music, under the direction of Mrs. Harriet P. James. The morning offering was good.

At the 3 p.m. hour a very interesting candlelight program was rendered at First Baptist. Sponsor of the program was Mrs. June Coleman. We learned that the program was a success.

We trust that the annual "Womans Day Program," at Jordan Baptist turned out well. We were sorry that due to previous engagements we were unable to attend. The Womans Club of Galilee Baptist, was with Jordan Woman's Club in spirit. We hope that your day was successful, as usual, in former years. May God be with you.

We are still praying for the sick all over. We are sorry to know that Sister Harris, is a patient in Lynchburg Marshall Lodge Hospital, at this writing; but happy to know, that the last report from her, was that she was on the road to recovery. We trust that Sister Theda Harris may continue to improve.

Brother Howard Stevens is still in the hospital in Maryland, but he too is improving at this time. We are sorry for all who are sick, and on the road to recovery.

We, the Stevens, are very happy to have our relatives from Bronx, N.Y. to return to the old home place, to live. We are certain that Mr. and Mrs. George Martin will be a great help to the community. We take our hats off to them for making such a wise choice for a new home spot. (smiles)

The Martins and Miss H. B. Stevens attended an award dinner at Virginia Seminary and The Virginia College, Graham Hall, May 23, 1974 at 6 p.m. The evening was an enjoyable one, in the Hill City of Lynchburg, Va.

Dinner, a very delicious one was served to the guest of honor and others present; Presentation of speaker, Dr. M. C. Southerland, college president; Instrumental Selection, Mrs. N. G. Meadows; Speaker, Dr. Joseph Beatty; Theme, Isaiah 64:4 - "For since the beginning of the world, men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen what God hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. The message was beautifully explained.

Presentations: Athletics - Coach Ivory Glass; College - Dean's List - Dean C. E. Hemnings, Jr.) Theology, Dean's List, Rev. J. E. Powers; Students of the Year, Mr. O. M. Washington; Special Awards, Dr. M. C. Southerland; Recognition of Guests - Mr. S. E. Crumwell; Closing Remarks, Dr. M. C. Southerland, college president; Benediction, Dr. Joseph Beatty. At the close of the program Honorary Degrees were conferred upon three former students of the college and one friend, Father Goode, of Roanoke, Doctor of Human Letters, Dr. Joseph Bass, Doctor of Divinity; Dr. Joseph Beatty, Doctor of Divinity, and our own county boy, Dr. Harry S. Ferguson, Doctor of Letters. Dr. Harry Ferguson is a member of the faculty of Virginia College, Lynchburg, Va. I was especially proud of Dr. Ferguson, first because he is a home town boy, and secondly, because we were school mates, and college graduates, and very warm friends. I must say, it is always a thrill, to see our friends, make progress. More power to Dr. Ferguson who is a noted historian of "Black History".

In and Out of Town:

While in town, they visited the Stevens and Martins, Mrs. Sykes' mother, Mrs. Fleshman, accompanied the Sykes, to Appomattox, Va. and visited with her sisters and brother-in-law over the week end. The Sykes and Fleshmans gave an account of our exciting week end.

Mrs. V. D. Ferguson has returned to her home in Maryland after spending some time visiting her mother, Mrs. Maggie Tibbs, sister and relatives in Appomattox.
